

BIO

"Jared Woods is a nomad with a notepad on a mission to share his positive perspective with the world."

Cultivating and honing his craft for nearly a decade, this self-taught songwriter and multi-instrumentalist is on a passionate quest to crystallize songs about deep spiritual subjects, in his own unique and playful way. Writing and performing music is an unquenchable drive that has led him to festivals around the world and now, to the creation of his debut album, Consciousness Rebel.

A psychedelic explorer since his early teens, Jared has found inspiration delving into the strange and beautiful realms of Spirit. It was the illuminating energy he found in these shamanic journeys that led him to pick up the guitar at age 22 and pour his heart into music.

Having performed at festivals with the likes of Murray Kyle, Dustin Thomas, Tubby Love, and Trevor Hall, Jared has made it his soul purpose to pioneer a new wave of conscious music.
